

Supreme Court of NSW Court of Appeal

Decisions Reserved as at 28 July 2023

	Number	Case Name	Heard	Issues	Judgment Below
1	2021/204042	Dwyer v Volkswagen Group Pty Ltd	30/03/2022	TRADE PRACTICES – the appellant brought representative proceedings on behalf of some 83,000 persons who purchased Volkswagen vehicles in which a Takata driver side airbag was installed between 2007 and 2018 – the appellant claimed that his vehicle was not of acceptable quality because, by reason of the installation of the Takata airbag, the vehicle was not free from defects and was not safe – primary judge found in favour of the respondent – whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the appellant's vehicle was not of acceptable quality at the time of the supply to the appellant, within the meaning of s 54 of the Australian Consumer Law – whether primary judge erred as to certain factual findings – whether primary judge erred by importing a negligence or fault standard into a strict liability regime – whether primary judge erred by rejecting certain expert evidence – whether primary judge ought to	Dwyer v Volkswagen Group Australia Pty Ltd t/as Volkswagen Australia [2021] NSWSC 715

2	2022/65750	Creak v Ford Motor Company of Australia Ltd	10/08/2022	have held that the appellant was entitled to damages under s 272 of the ACL CONTRACT – Appellant entered into a deed of settlement with the Respondent – under the deed the Appellant accepted inter alia that he would cease production and supply of a range of Ford vehicles and parts that are not manufactured with the authority of the Respondent or its related bodies corporate – Respondent sought injunctive relief against the Appellant for breach of a settlement of proceedings – primary judge found that deed of settlement was valid and the Appellant was bound by its terms – primary judge found that Appellant had failed to adhere to the terms of the deed – primary judge entered judgment for the Respondent – whether primary judge erred in construing the deed of settlement – whether primary judge erred in finding that the restraint of trade doctrine did not apply to the deed – whether primary judge erred in finding it was open to the Respondent to recover damages which it had incurred in other proceedings – whether primary judge erred in making orders for injunctive relief	Ford Motor Company of Australia Limited v Tallevine Pty Ltd (as trustee for Thornleigh Trading Trust) (in liq) [2022] NSWSC 83
3	2022/35553	Farriss v Axford	3/11/2022	TORTS (negligence) – First appellant is the lead guitarist in the band INXS – First appellant hired a boat through the third respondent belonging to the first respondent – First appellant sustained injuries to his left hand as a result of an accident on the boat – Appellants allege that the injuries were caused by the respondents' failure to take care – Primary judge held that there was no failure by the respondents to warn or instruct	Farriss v Axford (No 3) [2022] NSWSC 20 because the first appellant was aware of the relevant matters prior to the accident – Primary judge found that the exercise of reasonable care on the part of the respondents did not require any of them to arrange for additional componentry to be installed prior to the accident because the probability that harm would occur if care was not taken was low – Whether primary judge erred by failing to find that the respondents ought to have taken precautions and that failure was a breach of their duties of care which caused the appellants' loss – Whether primary judge erred by failing to find that the respondents breached their duty of care by failing to warn or instruct the first appellant which caused the appellants' loss – Whether primary judge erred by failing to find that the respondents breached their duty of care by failing to warn or instruct the first appellant which caused the appellants' loss – Whether primary judge erred by failing to find that the respondents breached the statutory guarantee in s 61 of the Australian Consumer Law which 4	2022/144781	Synergy Scaffolding Services Pty Ltd v Alelaimat	11/11/2022	caused the appellant's loss WORKERS COMPENSATION – Personal injury – The First Respondent was paid by DJ's Scaffolding Pty Limited (represented by the Second Respondent) for work as a sub- contracting truck driver delivering and collecting scaffolding materials to the Appellant – The First Respondent was injured when he was struck by a falling scaffolding bench caked in cement while he assisted in dismantling scaffolding he had been directed to collect – Appellant alleged that the proceedings were statute barred by the Limitation Act 1969 (NSW) – Primary judge held that claim was not statute-barred,	Alelaimat v Synergy Scaffolding Services (No 3) [2022] NSWSC 536 insofar as it was unclear that the First Respondent knew that his injury was caused by the fault of the Appellant, as opposed to DJ Scaffolding – The First Respondent alleged that the Appellant should be considered to be in the position of his employer and to owe the Respondent a non-delegable duty of care – The Appellant conceded that it owed the First Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismaniling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therfore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge ararded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.9 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent's claim was not liable to the First Respondent's claim was not liable to the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding to find that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge is award for non-economic loss was manifestly evenestive		1 by the fault of the Appellant, as opposed to DJ Scaffolding – The First Respondent alleged that the Appellant should be considered to be in the position of his employer and to owe the Respondent a non-delegable duty of care – The Appellant conceded that it owed the First Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work on the site – Primary judge site in the system of duty of the system of solver the the system of role dismantling the scaffolding was site, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge eught to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge eught in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly Scaffolding – The First Respondent alleged         that the Appellant should be considered to be         in the position of his employer and to owe the         Respondent a non-delegable duty of care –         The Appellant conceded that it owed the First         Respondent a duty of care, however alleged         that it had not assumed the role of employer         and was not responsible for the system of         work on the site – Primary judge found that         the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First         Respondent to ensure that the system of work         for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that         the Appellant breached that duty, and that         there friest Respondent duty, and that         there for the Appellant was liable in damages         – Primary judge awarded various heads of         damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 –         Whether primary judge erred in failing to find         that the First Respondent in negligence –         Whether primary judge ought to have held that         the Appellant was not liable to pay damages         in respect of medical expenses paid for by the         Second Respondent – Whether         ming judge erred in finding a causal link         between the accident and the resultant level         of disability – Whether primary judge that the Appellant should be considered to be         in the position of his employer and to owe the         Respondent a non-delegable duty of care –         The Appellant conceded that it owed the First         Respondent a duty of care, however alleged         that it had not assumed the role of employer         and was not responsible for the system of         work on the site – Primary judge found that         the Appellant ower all duty of care to the First         Respondent to ensure that the system of work         for dismantling the scatfolding was safe, that         the Appellant was liable in damages         – Primary judge awarded various heads of         damages amounting to $1,356,533.9         Whether primary judge erred in failing to find         that the First Respondent is negligence –         Whether primary judge erred in failing to find         that the First Respondent in negligence –         Whether primary judge erred in failing to find         that the Appellant was not liable to the his the Appellant was not         liable to the First Respondent in negligence –         Whether primary judge erred in failing to find         that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages         in respect of medical expenses paid for by the         Second Respondent – Whether primary judge         the Appellant was not liable to pa	• in the position of his employer and to owe the Respondent a non-delegable duty of care – The Appellant conceded that it owed the First Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.9 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent is claim was satute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find compares paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find compares paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	0 Respondent a non-delegable duty of care – The Appellant conceded that it owed the First Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly

The Appellant conceded that it owed the First Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent was not liable to the Second Respondent was not liable to the Second Respondent was not liable to the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent on angligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly Respondent a duty of care, however alleged that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent is claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly that it had not assumed the role of employer and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	The Appellant conceded that it owed the First and was not responsible for the system of work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	Respondent a duty of care, however alleged work on the site – Primary judge found that the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scalfolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	that it had not assumed the role of employer the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amouning to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	and was not responsible for the system of Respondent to ensure that the system of work for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	work on the site – Primary judge found that for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	the Appellant owed a duty of care to the First the Appellant breached that duty, and that therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	Respondent to ensure that the system of work therefore the Appellant was liable in damages – Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	for dismantling the scaffolding was safe, that <ul> <li>Primary judge awarded various heads of damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly</li> </ul>	the Appellant breached that duty, and that damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	therefore the Appellant was liable in damages Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	<ul> <li>Primary judge awarded various heads of</li> </ul> that the First Respondent's claim was statute barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	damages amounting to $1,356,533.39 – barred – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	Whether primary judge erred in failing to find finding that the Second Respondent was not liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	that the First Respondent's claim was statute liable to the First Respondent in negligence – Whether primary judge ought to have held that the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	barred – Whether primary judge erred in Whether primary judge ought to have held that         the Appellant was not liable to pay damages         in respect of medical expenses paid for by the         Second Respondent – Whether primary judge         erred in failing to find contributory negligence         against the First Respondent – Whether         primary judge erred in finding a causal link         between the accident and the resultant level         of disability – Whether primary judge's award         for non-economic loss was manifestly	finding that the Second Respondent was not the Appellant was not liable to pay damages in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	liable to the First Respondent in negligence – in respect of medical expenses paid for by the Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	Whether primary judge ought to have held that Second Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	the Appellant was not liable to pay damages erred in failing to find contributory negligence against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	in respect of medical expenses paid for by the against the First Respondent – Whether primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	Second Respondent – Whether primary judge primary judge erred in finding a causal link between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	erred in failing to find contributory negligence between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	against the First Respondent – Whether of disability – Whether primary judge's award for non-economic loss was manifestly	primary judge erred in finding a causal link for non-economic loss was manifestly	between the accident and the resultant level of disability – Whether primary judge's award excessive	for non-economic loss was manifestly
CACCOSIVC	excessive

5	2022/96995	Taylor & Wilkinson v Stav Investments Pty Ltd	1/12/2022	CONTRACT – Breach of contract and misleading and deceptive conduct – First Appellant was founder, director and CEO of Yatango Mobile – Second Appellant was Chief Financial Officer and company secretary of Yatango Mobile – Yatango Mobile was an online reseller of mobile phone plans provided to Yatango Mobile on a wholesale basis by Optus – Sales were made through an online platform promoted as unique which allowed users to customise their mobile phone plans – The directors of the Respondents in each matter were approached to invest in Yatango's business – In 2013 each of the Respondents were incorporated and entered into share sale agreements with Yatango Mobile for $750,000 – In 2014 the Respondents each invested a further $262,500 in Yatango Mobile – First and Second Appellant gave personal warranties as to the ownership of the intellectual property used in Yatango Mobile's business – Respondents alleged that First and Second Appellants made representations as to IP Ownership, Yatango Mobile's assets, the valuation of the Yatango Mobile business, and the roll-up of the Respondents' shares in Yatango mobile –-Yatango Mobile went into liquidation in 2015 – Respondents complained as to breaches of the warranties given by Appellants – Respondents complained of misleading and deceptive conduct and that, but for the misleading or deceptive representations, the Respondents would not have entered into the share sale agreements	Stav Investments Pty Ltd v Taylor; LK Investments Pty Ltd v Taylor [2022] NSWSC 208
---	------------	---	-----------	---	---

				<ul> <li>Whether primary judge erred in finding a no transaction case – Whether primary judge failed to provide sufficient reasoning for the conclusion that there was a no transaction case – Whether primary judge failed to take into account evidence in reaching conclusion that there was a no transaction case – Whether primary judge erred in concluding that the business of Yatango Mobile was not a going concern because it did not own the intellectual property — Whether primary judge erred in assuming that the claims made by the respondent extended beyond the contractual warranty claim – Whether primary judge erred in categorising the "Pre-Contract Roll-Up Representations" as a representation as to a future matter – Whether primary judge erred in finding that Respondent would not have entered into share sale agreements but for the Pre-Contract Roll-Up Representations</li> </ul>
6	2022/219923	Jaken Properties Australia Pty Limited v Naaman	7/02/2023	EQUITY – Trusts – Subrogation – The First Appellant was the trustee of the Sly Fox Trust – The initial trustee of the Sly Fox Trust was Jaken Property Group Pty Ltd (JPG), now in liquidation – In 2016, the Respondent obtained a judgment in the Supreme Court for $3.4 million against JPG – The Court determined that JPG was entitled to be indemnified from the assets of the Sly Fox Trust and that the Respondent was subrogated to JPG's right of indemnity – Second Appellant alleged that there was little or nothing of the assets in the Sly Fox Trust available to satisfy the judgment debt – Respondent alleged that to the extent that the	Jake Properties Australia Pty Ltd v Naaman [2022] NSWSC 517

	Trust was unable to meet the debt, this was brought about by the Second Appellant directly or indirectly causing the First Appellant to enter into impermissible transactions – Respondent alleged that First Appellant, as successor trustee of the Sly Fox Trust, owed a fiduciary duty to JPG not to deal with the assets of the Trust in a way that diminished JPG's right of indemnity – Respondent alleged that he was subrogated to JPG's right to enforce that fiduciary duty – Respondent alleged that the Second Appellant was the de facto and shadow director of the First Appellant and the architect of the impugned transactions – Respondent alleged that the First Respondent undertook various transfers of land or properties for no commercial purpose and for no consideration – Primary judge held that the impugned transactions were impermissible and in breach of trust – Whether primary judge erred in holding that the Respondent was entitled to sue the First Appellant as successor trustee of the Sly Fox Trust for breach of fiduciary duty by the First Appellant to JPG, and the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh appellants for knowing assistance – Whether primary judge erred in finding that various transfers of land were voidable transactions – Whether primary judge erred in making various factual findings – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the First Appellant breached orders made by Rein J by consent on 18 June 2014 – Whether primary judge erred in making declarations

7	2022/261766	The Property Investors Alliance Pty Ltd v C88 Project Pty Ltd (in liquidation)	13/02/2023	EQUITY - Rectification - Appellant is a real estate agent retained by the First Respondent to sell apartments in a development in Carlingford - The Appellant sold 317 apartments and received $10 million in commission, with some $18 million outstanding -Appellant brought proceedings to recover the sum owed, and the Respondent failed to file a Commercial List Reply - Appellant applied for summary judgment; Hammerschlag J (as his Honour then was) gave judgment in favour of the Appellant for $18 million with interest - Respondent sought to set aside the statutory demand for the judgment sum - In May 2022, the Respondent went into liquidation, and the Appellant sought leave under s 500(2) of theCorporations Act 2001 (Cth) to proceed against the Respondent - Appellant sought rectification of the agency agreement on the basis of mutual mistake and a declaration that, under the terms of that agreement, it has an equitable charge over 27 unsold apartments – The liquidator of the Respondent opposed the relief sought and contended that any equitable charge would be void for illegality pursuant to s 49(1) of the Property and Stock Agents Act 2002 (NSW) - Primary judge dismissed Appellant's claim for rectification - Primary judge held that the caveat clauses in the agency agreement did not grant an implied equitable charge - Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the agency agreement created an equitable charge - Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the Appellant and	The Property Investors Alliance Pty Ltd v CBB Project Pty Ltd (in liq) [2022] NSWSC 1081
---	-------------	---	------------	---	--

				the Respondent had a common intention that the monies secured by the charge included commissions for units previously sold by the Appellant - Whether primary judge erred in declining to draw a Jones v Dunkel inference - Whether primary judge erred in drawing an inference against the Appellant that it did not adduce into evidence notes or drafts of the agency agreement 8	2022/363122	Khatib v Director of Public Prosecutions	6/03/2023	ADMINISTRATIVE LAW – judicial review of District Court following appeal from Local Court – jurisdictional error – procedural fairness – failure to give reasons for being satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that complainant did not consent alleged touching – whether erred in giving direction under s293A of Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (NSW) as to inconsistencies – whether magistrate put words into the mouth of the complainant – failure to afford opportunity to speak – whether alleged touching met legal definition of sexual touching under s61HB of Crimes Act 1900 - bias	Lower Court decision not on Caselaw
9	2022/299298	Hartnett v Bell; Hartnett v Deakin-Bell	7/03/2023	PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE (legal) – The Appellant (a solicitor) charged his (now deceased) mortgagee client (the First Respondent) $288,601.03 for acting in uncontested possession proceedings to enforce a $30,000 mortgage – the Second Respondent as mortgagor (on behalf of the estate of his deceased mother) brought a claim that the Appellant ought to be ordered to disgorge or pay back what are said to be excessively charged legal fees that were borne by the Second Respondent as	Bell v Hartnett Lawyers (No 3) [2022] NSWSC 1204 mortgagor – the primary judge considered this an appropriate case for the Court to exercise its inherent supervisory jurisdiction to require the Appellant to pay to the Second Respondent the sum of $311,356.47 – whether the primary judge erred in holding that the supervisory jurisdiction of the Court extended to empowering the Court to order the Appellant to pay the mortgagor an amount which represented the difference between the undisputed amount paid by the mortgagee to the Appellant and the amount of costs which were assessed between the mortgagee and mortgagor in separate proceedings – whether the primary judge's discretion miscarried 10	2022/260573	Caterjian v Parfit Investments Pty Ltd	24/03/2023	LAND LAW-Action for possession of land - First Respondent was a provider of finance and Second Respondent was its director - Respondents alleged First Respondent loaned the First Appellant $250,000 pursuant to a facility agreement for the purpose of a business investment - Respondents alleged that Second Appellant executed a written guarantee of the First Appellant's obligations - Appellants granted a second mortgage over their property in Bexley to secure their obligations under the facility agreement and under a guarantee and indemnity agreement - Respondents alleged that First Appellant defaulted on payment of the principal and interest due under the facility agreement - Respondents sought possession of the Bexley property in order to exercise power of sale - Alternatively, Respondents sought restitution of the principal sum and interest - By cross-	Parfit Investments Ptv Ltd v Caterjian [2022] NSWSC 1093 claim Appellants disputed that the advance was made and that the Second Appellant was bound by her guarantee; and alleged unconscionable conduct and/or misleading and deceptive conduct - Primary judge held that Respondents were entitled to judgment for possession in order to exercise its power of sale - Whether primary judge erred in making various factual findings – Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the manner in which the advance was made discharged the Second Appellant's obligations in accordance with the principles in Ankar Ply Ltd v National Westminster Finance (Australia) Ltd (1987) 162 CLR 549 at [11] - Whether primary judge erred in failing to find that the Respondents had engaged in unconscionable conduct 11	2022/265558	Kalloghlian v Mitry Lawyers Pty Ltd	31/03/2023	had engaged in unconscionable conduct COSTS – dismissal of motion seeking costs against applicant's lawyer under s99 of Civil Procedure Act 2005 (NSW) – whether evidence established a prima facie case that order should be made – whether irrelevant factors taken into account – whether alleged failure to plead cause of action amounts to gross negligence or improper conduct – adequacy of reasons	Kalloghlian v Mitry Lawyers Pty Ltd (No 2) [2022] NSWSC 1071

12	2022/370857	Soulos v Pagones; Soulos v Soulos; Kristallis v Soulos; Kristallis v Pagones	6/04/2023	SUCCESSION – the deceased was survived by her four children (James, Maria, Dennis and Nick), 12 grandchildren and several great- grandchildren – the deceased left an estate of some $35.8 million comprising all forms of property – much of the property was held by two companies, Esperia Court Pty Ltd (Esperia) and A&R Management Pty Ltd (A&R) – by her last will the deceased left each	Re Estate Soulos [2022] NSWSC 1507

13	2022/336144	United	14/04/2023	child property and shares in Esperia, although the deceased gifted Nick all management shares in Esperia and the major interest of all members of Esperia in a winding up of Esperia – disputes as to particular parcels of land and corresponding entitlements to shares in Esperia and A&R arose between the children of the deceased – Maria brought a claim for Esperia to be wound up in oppression proceedings against the deceased's estate, Nick and John (Nick's son) – claims as to family provision orders were brought by each of James, Maria and Dennis – the primary judge made orders that the four sets of proceedings be heard together with evidence in each set of proceedings to be evidence in each other set of proceedings so far as may be material – the primary judge made orders that each child of the deceased receive 125 of the 500 management shares in Esperia – the primary judge made an order that James receive 1,000 shares in Esperia and that they be required to retire as directors of Esperia – whether the primary judge erred in finding that adequate provision for the proper maintenance, education or advancement in the life of James had not been made in the will of the deceased for the purpose of s 59 of the Succession Act 2006 (NSW) CONTRACT – agreement to separate waste	Par Recycling Services Pty Ltd v United
13	2022/330144	Resource	14/04/2023	from recycled collections in commingled	Resource Management Pty Ltd [2022]

		Management Pty Ltd v Par Recycling Services Pty Ltd		containers – dispute as to failure to make payments - whether "implied agreement" could be terminated by reasonable notice – whether erred in finding misleading or deceptive conduct in relation to the Somersby Supply Agreement – whether offer would have been but for that conduct – whether loss suffered – whether an agreement on more favourable terms would have been entered – whether common mistake as to 2011 agreement was such that the parties were bound by the "implied agreement" – whether the appellant was unjustly enriched – whether failure to call witness gave rise to a Jones v Dunkel inference of 2011 agreement coming to an end	NSWSC 1269
14	2022/295461	Wojciechowska v Secretary, Department of Communities and Justice	24/04/2023	CONSTITUTION – proceedings pending in NCAT concerning Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 - applicant a resident of Tasmania - whether Tribunal can exercise jurisdiction – whether President of NCAT erred in exercising functions under s52 of Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 to reconstitute Appeal Panel	Wojciechowska v Secretary, Department of Communities and Justice [2022] NSWCATAP 226
15	2022/342349	Atanaskovic v Birketu Pty Ltd	1/05/2023	COSTS – declaration made as to costs entitlement during pending cost assessment of party & party costs - whether unincorporated law firm can recover costs performed by employed solicitor – whether previous right to recover derived from the now abrogated Chorley exception	Birketu v Castagnet [2022] NSWSC 1435
16	2022/326111	He v Kure	3/05/2023	EQUITY – Oral Loan Agreement – The Respondent sought a monetary judgment for $1,804,117.84 (plus interest) in respect of loans allegedly made by the Respondent to	Kure v He [2022] NSWSC 1240 the Appellant which were not repaid, and moneys alleged to have been misappropriated by the Appellant – Primary judge found that the Respondent had loaned the Appellant $633,744.57 in 2008, repayable upon two months' notice, which remained unpaid – Primary judge found that the Respondent loaned the Appellant a further $312,000 in 2009, which remained unpaid – Primary judge found that the Respondent loaned the Appellant a further sum of $159,738 later in 2009, which remained unpaid – Primary judge found that the entitlement to recover the sums loaned was not extinguished by the Limitation Act 1969 (NSW) ss 14 and 63 – Primary judge held that the Respondent was precluded from maintaining his claim for equitable compensation for the alleged misappropriations on the basis that he made the claim more than six years after it first became available to him – Primary judge entered judgment for the Respondent in the sum of $1,105,513.04 – Whether primary judge erred in finding that each of the three loans remained unpaid – Whether primary judge erred in finding that the Appellant bore the onus to prove that the first loan had been repaid – Whether the primary judge erred in holding that the first loan was in fact a loan – Whether primary judge erred in finding that entitlement to recover each of the three loans was not barred by the Limitation Act 1969 (NSW) – Whether primary judge failed to give adequate reasons for the cost orders made

L

17	2022/341	Ranclose Investments Pty Ltd v Leda Management Services Pty Ltd	4/05/2023	PROCEDURE – dismissal of proceedings after non-payment of security for costs – whether UCPR 42.21(3) is inconsistent with s1335 of the Corporations Act 2001 – whether power under UCPR 42.21 enlivened – whether erred in dismissing amended statement of claim – whether erred in ordering security for costs – whether failed to take into account that applicant was a trustee with no assets COSTS – whether erred in ordering costs of the dismissal of cross-claim - whether failed to take into account an undertaking not to pursue a cross-claim	Ranclose Investments Pty Ltd v Leda Management Services Pty Ltd [2021] NSWDC 651
18	2022/344622	Demex Pty Ltd v McNab Building Services Pty Ltd	12/05/2023	BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION – the parties entered into a subcontract by which the appellant agreed to undertake remediation works – the appellant claimed an amount for work completed and the respondent challenged the amounts claimed – an adjudication determination was made in favour of the appellant against the respondent under s 22 of the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999 (NSW) – the respondent sought a declaration that the determination was void and an order that it be quashed – the primary judge held that the respondent was denied procedural fairness because it was a realistic possibility that if the adjudicator had disclosed that he would apply a conversion factor to the determination and allowed the respondent to make submissions as to that approach the respondent could have dissuaded him from taking that approach – whether the primary judge erred in determining that the second respondent had	McNab Building Services Pty Ltd v Demex Pty Ltd [2022] NSWSC 1441

19	2022/318631	Li v Tao	16/05/2023	denied the first respondent procedural fairness – whether the primary judge erred in determining that the denial of procedural fairness was material EQUITY – the appellant and respondent were in a de factor relationship – the appellant bought a property in North Ryde using the respondent's money for the deposit – both parties entered into a written agreement with the appellant and Mr Bao pursuant to which Mr Bao agreed to contribute 50% of the costs for the development of a North Ryde Property in return for 50% of net profits – the respondent purchased a property in St Ives and at some point the appellant's name was added as co-purchaser – the parties' relationship deteriorated and the respondent and Mr Bao requested that the appellant refused – Mr Bao sought an order from the court that the North Ryde Property be sold and an account taken to determine his entitlement – the respondent cross-claimed against the appellant alleging that she held the North Ryde Property and the St Ives Property on express trust for him – the primary judge held that the appellant and the respondent agreed to the creation of an express trust in relation to both properties – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the respondent and Ms Lee were honest witnesses – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the appellant was an unimpressive witness – whether the primary judge erred in finding that an express trust	Bao v Li [2022] NSWSC 1335
----	-------------	----------	------------	---	----------------------------

				arose in relation to the St Ives Property – whether the primary judge erred in making various factual findings – whether the primary judge erred in making orders to effect the transfer of the St Ives Property without first ordering that the appellant was entitled to an indemnity with respect to the mortgage liabilities in her name EQUITY – the Ashington group of companies 20	2022/48359; 2022/173413	Anderson v Canaccord Genuity Financial Ltd	17/05/2023	(Ashington) was founded and controlled by Mr Anderson, the Appellant's husband - Ashington carried on a property development business – Ashington came under financial strain and engaged the services of the First Respondent to raise capital from alternative sources – Ashington also engaged the services of the Fourth Respondents to advise the superannuation fund investors on behalf of Ashington – Ashington engaged the Second and Third respondents as Head of Funds Management and Head of Acquisitions respectively to liaise with the First and Fourth Respondents – the Second and Third Respondents abandoned attempts to secure capital raising – investors approved the removal of Ashington as trustee of the property development business – Ashington – Appellant commenced proceedings against the Respondents alleging that the Respondents had acted unlawfully to take Ashington's business for their own benefit – Primary judge held that Appellant had standing to sue for breach of contract but	Anderson v Canaccord Genuity Financial Ltd [2022] NSWSC 58 not breach of obligations owed to Ashington as a trustee – Primary judge held that Second and Third Respondents breached duties of good faith and loyalty arising from their employment with Ashington – the primary judge held that loss not established and ordered Second and Third Respondent to pay nominal damages – the primary judge dismissed claims for breach of fiduciary duty, knowing assistance and confidence against the Respondents – whether the primary judge erred in finding that Appellant lacked standing to sue for breach of confidence and fiduciary obligations – whether the primary judge erred in failing to find that the Second and Third Respondents breached fiduciary duties – whether the primary judge erred in failing to find that the First, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Respondents knowingly assisted the Second and Third Respondents – whether the primary judge erred in failing to find that the First Respondent breached fiduciary duties and duties of good faith – whether the primary judge erred in calculating Appellant's loss 21	2022/119930	Collier v Attorney General for the State of New South Wales	18/05/2023	ADMINISTRATIVE LAW (other) – orders made under Vexatious Proceedings Act 2008 (NSW) restraining applicant from commencing proceedings in New South Wales without leave – whether primary erred in not adjourning trial – whether erred in discretion to make orders – procedural fairness – bias - findings – evidence	Attorney General for the State of New South Wales v Collier (No 1) [2022] NSWSC 457

22	2022/238296	SAS Trustee Corporation v Learmont	19/05/2023	WORKERS COMPENSATION – Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 (NSW) – Whether the trial judge erred in law in finding	Lower Court decision not on Caselaw in favour of the Respondent

23	2022/362424	Ritson v State of New South Wales	25/05/2023	WORKERS COMPENSATION - Treatment expenses - Appellant suffered a thumb injury in 2006 - Appellant made a claim under s 60 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 (NSW) for the cost of fractional ablative laser treatment ($825) undertaken in 2021 - The Appellant's former employer, the NSW Police Force, disputed liability pursuant to ss 78 and 287 A of the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 (NSW), alleging that the Appellant had received damages in respect of the injury relief upon -Appellant and Respondent entered into a Deed of Release with respect to all claims and entitlements arising from the Appellant's discharge from the Police Force - Primary judge concluded that the terms of the deed included the thumb injury and thus the Appellant was not entitled to the costs of treatment - Whether primary judge erred in finding that the payment to the Appellant pursuant to the deed met the description of "damages" as defined ins 149(1) of the Workers Compensation Act- Whether primary judge erred in finding that such payment was in respect of the thumb injury for the purpose of s 151A of the Workers Compensation Act- Whether primary judge denied the Appellant's contention that the Respondent's conduct created an estoppel by convention	Ritson v State of New South Wales (No. 1) [2022] NSWDC 345

24	2022/379614	Sydney Metro v Expandamesh Pty Ltd	26/05/2023	LAND & ENVIRONMENT – a substratum of a property owned by the respondent was compulsorily acquired by the appellant for the purpose of constructing tunnels for the Sydney Metro City and Southwest project – the Valuer General determined that the amount of compensation to be paid to the respondent was nil – the respondent commenced proceedings disputing the Valuer General's determination – the primary judge held that a hypothetical purchaser of the substratum of the site would contemplate a potential 10% uplift – the primary judge held that making allowances for cost the uplift in value of the site is at least in the order of $800,000 – the primary judge ordered the appellant to pay the respondent $20,000 for the compulsory acquisition and pay the respondent's costs – whether the primary judge erred by applying an improper construction of clause 2(1)(a) of Schedule 6B to the Transport Administration Act 1988 to the facts - whether the primary judge erred by failing to have proper regard to the matters specified in s 55 of Just Terms Act in determining the amount of compensation	Expandamesh Pty Ltd v Sydney Metro (No 3) [2022] NSWLEC 137
25	2022/144952; 2022/145015	Lowe v Tu; Lowe v Lowe	29/05/2023	EQUITY – Partnership – This appeal arises out of the Sze Tu v Lowe litigation, which concerned three properties purchased by the deceased father of the Second Appellant and various of the Respondents (who died intestate) purchased with moneys derived from a partnership between the deceased and	Lowe v Pascoe (No 13) [2022] NSWSC 320

		Bhatt v YTO		various of his children – The Second Appellant is the deceased's daughter, and the First Appellant is married to the Second Appellant – Primary judgment concerned the form of orders for the further conduct and finalisation of the various related proceedings in the litigation, specifically, the extent to which the estate of the deceased should receive a distribution from the funds held by the Administrator, the calculation of notional distributions received by the First to Third Respondents, and the costs of the proceedings – Primary judge concluded that the Administrator's costs were to be paid out of the funds held by the Administrator – Primary judge directed the parties to provide orders giving effect to all conclusions reached in the proceedings – Primary judge made orders on 21 April 2022 – Whether primary judge erred in making a notation as opposed to an order regarding the value of the Net Proceeds Trust and distributions to be made therefrom – Whether primary judge erred in making a notation rather than an order as to the value of the Profits Trust and distributions to be made therefrom – Whether primary judge erred in failing to determine all relevant matters raised by the Inquiry – Whether primary judge entered orders inconsistent with orders of the Court of Appeal in Sze Tu v Lowe (No 2) [2015] NSWCA 9 TRADE PRACTICES – Misleading or 26	2022/284565	Construction Pty Ltd	2/06/2023	deceptive conduct – the appellant is a director of Innovative Civil Pty Ltd (Innovative) – the respondent contracted Innovative to carry out	YTO Construction Pty Ltd v Bhatt [2022] NSWDC 348 excavation works – Innovative issued a progress claim to the respondent which claimed a variation amount – the respondent disputed the amounts claimed and Innovative lodged an adjudication application – the adjudicator determined to allow Innovative the variation sum sought – the respondent commenced proceedings to set aside the adjudication determination on the basis that it was procured by fraud and paid approximately $1.5 million into the Supreme Court – the respondent's claims were dismissed (see [2018] NSWSC 1354) and the amount paid into court was ordered to be paid to Innovative – on appeal (see [2019] NSWCA 110) Innovative was successful and was ordered by the NSWCA to pay $399,000 plus GST and interest back into Court however Innovative did not pay that amount and subsequently entered into voluntary liquidation – the Court also remitted the proceedings to the Equity Division for further hearing – the respondent brought proceedings against the appellant in the District Court alleging that the respondent suffered damage because of three representations made by the appellant in relation to the adjudication – the trial judge held that the appellant did make the three statements and that they were representations made in trade or commerce to the adjudicator and the respondent by the appellant – the trial judge held that there was misleading or deceptive conduct in relation to claims in category 1 and 4 – the trial judge held that the adjudicator relied upon the misleading and

l

				deceptive conduct of the appellant in coming to its view that Innovative was entitled to its entire claim – the trial judge held that the respondent suffered a loss of $254,100 because of the misleading or deceptive conduct of the appellant – whether amendments sought by respondent in the continuing Equity Division proceedings are inconsistent with respondent's appeal – whether an issue estoppel arises – whether the contents of the payment claim were representations made in trade or commerce 27	2021/349602	Garslev Holdings Pty Ltd v Overdean Developments Pty Ltd	9/06/2023	EQUITY – Third Respondent ("BAD Nominees") was trustee of a self-managed superannuation fund ("Dean Super Fund") for the sole benefit of the Second Respondent ("Mr Dean") – Mr Dean was sole shareholder and director of BAD Nominees – First Respondent ("Overdean") replaced BAD Nominees as trustee of the Dean Super Fund in September 2018 – Mr Dean is sole director and shareholder of Overdean – in February 2013, BAD Nominees made a secured loan of $2m to Beechworth Land Estates Pty Ltd ("BLE") to fund the acquisition of a mortgage over 39 properties in regional Victoria ("mortgaged properties") – where the mortgagor had defaulted – BAD Nominees also made a secured loan to Griffith Estates Pty Ltd ("GEP") – in July 2014, BLE and GEP went into administration – BAD Nominees lodged a proof of debt claimed to be owed by BLE under the loan advanced to it – early in May 2016, Mr Dean was introduced to the Second and Third Appellants ("Mr L Smits"	Overdean Developments Pty Ltd v Garslev Holdings Pty Ltd (No 3) [2021] NSWSC 1482 and "Mr Mahomm was the sole director of 1		) – Messrs L Smits and notified that BAD Nominees 5	any payment out of the administration of E	BLE and lacked legal representation – c	n 9 May 2016, BAD ed a Power of Attorney in favour of Messrs L	Smits and Mahommed for 1	a period of three y	ears and for the purposes of the BLE and GEP	administrations – Mr Mahommed is the	sole director and shareholder of the	Fourth Appellant so on 9 May 2016, BAD Nominees, Vested	corp and Mr L Smits entered agreement and an risation and direction" ("IAD") – consulta	ncy agreement set out terms rp and Mr L Smits would b BAD Nominees and exercise functions	and powers in respect of the BLE and GEP	administrations – the IAD provided for the pa	ayment to Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits ar	nd Mahommed of 25% of all monies payable to	BAD Nominees under the on 2 August 2017, BLE and BAD Nominees er	ntered an agreement for the the mortgaged properties in consideration of th	ne reduction of the debt owed to BAD Nom	ninees by $1m – on 21 February 2018, Bl	E went into liquidation – Ir J Smits") is the sole director and share	holder of the First Appellant ("Garslev") – on 2	0 March 2018 and 5 November 2018 re	espectively, BAD Nominees executed deeds to transfer to Garslev the nine mortgaged properties and other of its rights in relation to the BLE administration in consideration of $850,000 – those deeds were signed by Mr Mahommed on behalf of BAD Nominees – the earlier of those deeds permitted Garslev to pay the consideration by setting off monies allegedly owed by BAD Nominees to Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits and Mahommed – by the latter of the deeds, Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits and Mahommed assigned to Garslev the debts allegedly owed to them by BAD Nominees in consideration for payment out of the profits of a separate property development being undertaken by Garslev – Garslev became registered proprietor of the nine mortgaged properties on 5 November 2018 without making any monetary payment to BAD Nominees – Garslev subsequently sold the nine mortgaged properties for an aggregate price of $1.126m – late in 2018, Mr Mahommed executed a deed on behalf of BAD Nominees to retain Mr L Smits as the company's solicitor in litigation concerning the administration of BLE – on 13 December 2018, Respondents commenced proceedings against Appellants seeking declarations that the Power of Attorney, consultancy agreement and IAD were rescinded for breach of fiduciary duty, that the deeds of 20 March and 5 November 2018 were rescinded for breach of fiduciary duty, that the Garslev holds the proceeds of the sale of the nine mortgaged properties on constructive trust for BAD

L

Nominees or Overdean – Appellants defended the proceedings and cross-claimed for damages comprising fees said to be owed to Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits and Mahommed under the consultancy agreement and IAD, offset against the $850,000 paid to Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super damages comprising fees said to be owed to Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits and Mahommed under the consultancy agreement and IAD, offset against the $850,000 paid to Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super Vestecorp and Messrs L Smits and Mahommed under the consultancy agreement and IAD, offset against the $850,000 paid to Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super Mahommed under the consultancy agreement and IAD, offset against the $850,000 paid to Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super and IAD, offset against the $850,000 paid to Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super Garslev – Appellants also contended that the Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super Respondents' proceedings were precluded by the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super and/or Anshun estoppel by reason of earlier judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super judgments in related proceedings concerning the BLE administration and the Dean Super the BLE administration and the Dean Super Fund – primary judge found in favour of Respondents and ordered the relief that they sought – whether primary judge erred in finding that Respondents had standing to bring the proceedings – whether primary judge erred in finding that the proceedings were not precluded by any of the doctrines of res judicata, issue estoppel or Anshun estoppel – whether primary judge erred in finding that there was fraud on the Power of Attorney – whether primary judge erred in finding that recission was available in respect of the deed of 20 March 2018 – whether primary judge erred in finding that the Appellants had breached fiduciary duties owed to the Respondents – whether primary judge erred in the application of the principle in Barnes v Addy – whether primary judge erred in making, or failing to make, various findings of fact – whether primary judge erred in the quantification of debts said to be owing between the parties – whether primary judge erred in the assessment of costs in view of the

28	2022/368706	State of New South Wales v Spedding	13/06/2023	principle in Bell Lawyers Pty Ltd v Pentelow (2019) 269 CLR 333 TORTS (other) – malicious prosecution – the respondent became a person of interest in relation to an investigation into the disappearance of William Tyrrell – two months later the respondent was arrested and charged in relation to historical sexual assault allegations – the respondent was found not guilty in District Court proceedings by Sweeney DCJ on all counts and was awarded costs – the respondent brought a claim against the appellant for damages on the basis that the sexual assault allegations that led to his District Court prosecution were in effect a collateral attack upon him in order to facilitate the investigation of him as a suspect in the disappearance of William Tyrrell – the primary judge found that the criminal proceedings were instituted and maintained against the respondent without reasonable or probable cause and were malicious – the primary judge held that the respondent had established that he was entitled to damages on the causes of action pleaded except of the claim for false imprisonment – whether the primary judge erred in finding that Detective Senior Constable Brennan and Detective Chief Inspector Jubelin maintained the prosecution (and on that basis were liable for malicious prosecution) beyond April 2015 – whether the primary judge erred in making	Spedding v State of New South Wales [2022] NSWSC 1627 prosecution (and on that basis were liable for malicious prosecution) beyond April 2015 –

29	2022/386243	Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority v 4 Boys (NSW) Pty Ltd	14/06/2023	office – whether the primary judge erred in finding that DSC Brennan and DCI Jubelin engaged in collateral abuse of process – whether the award of damages was manifestly excessive ADMINISTRATIVE (judicial review) – declaration sought in Supreme Court as to applicant's failure to revoke decisions made under the Gaming Machines Act 2001 (GMA) – whether s 48 of Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW) gives the applicant the power to revoke a decision under either s 34 or s20A of the GMA – whether Part 4 of GMA evinces a contrary intention to displace s 48	4 Boys (NSW) Pty Ltd v Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority [2022] NSWSC 1689
30	2022/352028	Sunaust Properties Pty Ltd v Owners of Strata Plan 64807	19/06/2023	ADMINISTRATIVE LAW (other) – application by respondent to terminate caretaker agreement under s72 of Strata Schemes Management Act 2015 (NSW) – whether NCAT had jurisdiction - whether caretaker agreement was caught by saving provisions in Schedule 3 of the Act – whether agreement was governed by earlier Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 (NSW) – whether s30 of Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW) operates to accrue earlier rights when application made under wrong Act PROCEDURE - whether slip rule enlivened – Appeal Panel determined appeal on jurisdictional basis and did not deal with other grounds of appeal as being unnecessary – Appeal Panel subsequently dealt with other grounds under the slip rule in a No 2 decision - whether omission intentional and not covered by slip rule – whether an obvious	Sunaust Properties Pty Ltd v Owners of Strata Plan 64807 [2022] NSWCATAP 246; Sunaust Properties Pty Ltd v Owners of Strata Plan 64807 (No 2) [2022] NSWCATAP 335

				error
31	2022/366496	Lin v Zheng	23/06/2023	TRADE PRACTICES – the appellant approached the respondents (together, the Lenders) to lend funds for a property development in Turramurra – the appellant and his company (Quantum) entered into oral loan agreements with the Lenders pursuant to which the Lenders advanced monies to Quantum on an unsecured basis – Quantum on-lent the funds to another company – the Lenders brought a claim for damages or compensation against the appellant – the Lenders contended that the appellant guaranteed the repayment of monies loaned to Quantum for the purposes of the property development – the primary judge held that the appellant made a representation to the Lenders that he was a guarantor of Quantum's liability in respect of the third, fourth and fifth respondents and that this representation was misleading and deceptive – the primary judge further held that the guaranteed repayment representations were made by the appellant to the Lenders and these representations were misleading and deceptive – the primary judge also held that causation was made out in respect of these representations – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the appellant made a representation to the third, fourth and fifth respondents that he was a guarantor of Quantum's liability in respect of their loans and this representation was a cause of their loss – whether the primary judge erred in	Quantum Investments (Aust) Pty Ltd & Ors v Zhi Wei Lin trading as Jack Lin [2022] NSWSC 1387; Quantum Investments (Aust) Pty Ltd & Ors v Zhi Wei Lin trading as Jack Lin (No 2) [2022] NSWSC 1558 finding that the appellant made the guaranteed repayment representations to the Lenders and these representations were a cause of the Lenders' loss 32	2023/13223	Thynne v Sheringham	4/07/2023	REAL PROPERTY – deceased made a will in favour of the respondent and signed a memorandum of wishes that property be left to the applicant on the respondent's death – respondent subsequently mortgaged the property – whether trust arose on deceased's death – whether caveatable interest – whether erred in finding that there was no trust created – whether interest was a floating obligation that crystalises on the death of respondent	Thynne v Jevny Pty Ltd [2022] NSWSC 1774

33	2023/110538	Lieschke v Lieschke	12/07/2023	COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION – setting aside of arbitration award on the basis of refusal of arbitrator to permit a third party expert to confer with the appointed experts – whether use of the third party expert would contradict the methodology adopted for interim award – whether the direction not to confer was a proper exercise of discretion by the Arbitrator	Lieschke v Lieschke [2022] NSWSC 1705
34	2022/383141	Venues NSW v Kane	17/07/2023	TORT (other) – respondent slipped and fell on steps at the McDonald Jones Stadium in Broadmeadow – whether provision of handrail would have prevented injury – whether s 5B(1)(c) of Civil Liability Act 2002 mandated a handrail - whether respondent would have likely used the handrail – damages – adequacy of reasons	Lower Court decision not on Caselaw
35	2023/2331	Altius Pty Ltd v Abignano Nominees Pty Ltd	19/07/2023	CONTRACT – Biagio Abignano and Paul Peterkin became involved in property development projects together both personally and through associated companies – Altius Pty Ltd was a joint entity until about April 2016	Abignano Nominees Pty Ltd v Altius Pty Ltd [2022] NSWSC 1739

-		i
	when it became Mr Peterkin's entity – in March 2012, Altius established the Altius Unit Trust and Altius, B&J Abignano Pty Ltd, Jerolu Investments Pty Ltd, Mr Abignano and Mr Peterkin entered into a Unitholders Agreement about the operation of the trust – in May 2012, Altius (as trustee of the trust) entered into a joint venture agreement with Abignano Nominees Pty Ltd and Sheridan Peterkin (Mr Peterkin's wife) to acquire, develop and hold a property called Pasadena – Altius became the registered proprietor of Pasadena – the application for development consent of Pasadena was refused – in 2016 Mr Peterkin and his related entities entered into a written agreement to 'buy out' the interests of Mr Abignano and his related entities in the joint venture and trust (Buy Out Agreement), and a subsequent agreement to purchase the units in the trust as part of a put and call option (Option Agreement) – Mr Abignano and his related entities commenced proceedings claiming a net amount of payments made by them between July 2012 and January 2016 to Altius as the proceeds of loans which were due and payable – Mr Peterkin and his related entities filed a cross-claim that the loans were comprehended by the "Holding Costs Contribution" under the Option Agreement and that Mr Abignano made three representations to this effect which were misleading and deceptive conduct – the primary judge did not accept that the loans were covered by the Option Agreement or were to be treated as non-repayable – the primary judge found that the representations alleged by Paul and his related entities were not made out – whether the primary judge erred in construing the Holding Costs Contribution or alternatively erred in finding that the loans were obtained pursuant to the Option Agreement – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the representations were not made 36	2023/143307	Coal & Allied Operations Pty Ltd v Crossley	20/07/2023	ADMIN LAW (Judicial Review) – whether the primary judge made an error of law on the face of the record in construing the statute (the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Regulation 2015 and Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (NSW))	Lower Court decision not on Caselaw

37	2023/138941	Ceerose Pty Ltd v A-Civil Aust Pty Ltd	20/07/2023	BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION – the first respondent as subcontractor agreed to carry out certain work for the appellant for a sum – the first respondent served a payment claim and the appellant provided a payment schedule in response which rejected the claimed amount in its entirety – an adjudicator issued a determination that the ultimate amount to be paid was over $2 million – the appellant challenged the validity of the determination asserting several jurisdictional errors – the primary judge found that none of the grounds were made out by the appellant and there was no constructive failure to exercise jurisdiction as alleged – whether the primary judge erred in failing to conclude that the adjudicator committed a jurisdictional error in rejecting the appellant's claim for liquidated damages – whether the primary judge erred in exercising the power in s 32A of the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment	Ceerose Pty Ltd v A-Civil Aust Pty Ltd [2023] NSWSC 239

				Act 1999 (NSW)
38	2022/382189	Anderson v Indigenous Land and Sea Corporation	24/07/2023	ADMIN LAW (judicial review) – the respondent is the registered proprietor of parcels of rural land in NSW and Queensland – the first and second appellant occupy the lands without the consent of the respondent – the respondent brought a claim against the appellants for possession of the lands or alternatively sought an injunction to restrain the appellants' trespass – the primary judge held that s 23 of the Supreme Court Act 1970 (NSW) was not displaced and – whether the primary judge erred in failing to have regard to the dispute between the liquidator and the respondent as to who owns the land – whether the primary judge erred by finding that Ngurampaa Ltd held land on trust for the respondent – whether the primary judge erred in failing to consider whether the respondent and the liquidator acted in bath faith or engaged in unconscionable conduct	Indigenous Land and Sea Corporation v Anderson [2022] NSWSC 1650
39	2022/387702	Mao v Bao	25/07/2023	EQUITY – the appellant sought judgment for the unpaid amount of a loan he made to the respondent (it being agreed that a sum of $800,000 was paid off the loan) – the respondent made a cross-claim against the appellant concerning a property in Vaucluse that the appellant bought with money which had been provided by the respondent, claiming that the appellant held the property as trustee for the respondent – both the appellant's claim and the respondent's cross- claim succeeded – the parties disputed when the set-off should take place – the primary	Mao v Bao (No 2) [2022] NSWSC 1699

				judge found that the requirements of an equitable set-off were met and the set-off should be taken at the date of 5 May 2014 (and noted that no point was taken about this by the appellant) – whether the primary judge erred by finding that the requirements of an equitable set-off were satisfied, as between the parties' respective claims – whether the primary judge erred by finding that the set-off between the parties' respective claims is to be undertaken at 5 May 2014 rather than the date of judgment pursuant to s 21 of the Civil Procedure Act 2005 40	2023/88427	Pitcher Partners Holdings Pty Ltd v Twigg	25/07/2023	PROCEDURE – stay of proceedings – abuse of process – where in earlier proceedings respondent was successful in establishing a breach of fiduciary duty against a separate party – where primary proceedings now seek to establish that applicants are accessorily liable for conduct of other party - whether forensic decision made not to join applicant to earlier proceedings – whether erred in assessing extent of prejudice that would be sustained – whether prejudice could be cured by trial judge – whether there was any relevant delay by the respondent in bringing proceedings – whether claim is vexatious or frivolous	Twigg v Pitcher Partners Holdings Pty Ltd (No 4) [2023] NSWSC 109
41	2021/15614	Huynh v Attorney General (NSW)	27/07/2023	PROCEDURE – preliminary determination as to jurisdiction - dismissal of Part 7 application under Crimes (Appeal land Review) Act 2001 (NSW) in respect of a Commonwealth offence – whether proceedings in this Court are a special federal matter under s3 - whether primary Judge was an officer of the	Application of Huy Huynh under Part 7 of the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001 for an Inquiry [2020] NSWSC 1356

				Commonwealth for the purposes of the Jurisdiction of Courts (Cross-Vesting) Act 1987 (Cth) – whether decision came within Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth) – whether proceedings ought to be transferred to Federal Court
42	2022/282107; 2022/362371	Toth v State of New South Wales	27/07/2023	TORTS – claim for false imprisonment, assault and malicious prosecution – charge of "upskirting" dismissed after successful appeal to District Court - evidence – failure to address malice – findings inconsistent with evidence – whether erred in relying on tendency – whether erred in admitting disputed video evidence – bias	Toth v State of New South Wales [2022] NSWDC 263
43	2022/384592	Flynn v PPK Mining Equipment Pty Ltd	28/07/2023	TRADE PRACTICES – the appellants entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with the respondents by which the appellants sold their shares in two companies for cash, shares in second respondent and, subject to satisfaction of the "Second Performance Conditions" (SPCs), further shares in the second respondent – the appellants brought a claim for the further shares in the second respondent and unpaid dividends on those shares - the primary judge held that the Share Purchase Agreement was varied, including the SPCs – the primary judge did not accept that transfer pricing or market price transfer pricing was an accounting standard within the meaning of the Share Purchase Agreement – the primary judge held that no adjustment to revenue nor amendment to the NPAT Statement ought to be made – the primary judge held that, although the respondents were in breach of the Share Purchase	Flynn v PPK Mining Equipment Pty Ltd (No 2) [2022] NSWSC 1640

				Agreement as varied by failing to provide an NPAT Statement, there was no loss – the primary judge held that the appellants succeeded in obtaining declaratory relief however they did not satisfy the SPCs and were not entitled to the further shares – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the revenue of the Business for the relevant period was less than $1,000,000 – whether the primary judge erred in finding that the respondent's calculation of revenue was in accordance with the applicable accounting standards defined in the Share Purchase Agreement – whether the primary judge erred in finding that internal transfer pricing was not appropriate to calculate the revenue in the relevant period – whether the primary judge erred in making various findings with respect to revenue for internal jobs, for FLP-1 enclosures and for job NEX00216 – whether the primary judge erred in construing the contractual term "business" by excluding overhaul (service and repair) work – whether the primary judge erred in finding that reconditioning, replacing, overhauling, repairing and servicing various components was self evidently not part of the Business – whether the primary judge erred in making various findings with respect to the revenue for the Certificates of Recognition 44	2023/67343	McMillan v Taylor	28/07/2023	LAND AND ENVIRONMENT – consent decision following conciliation conference under s 34 of Land and Environment Court Act - applicants were invited to address Commissioner at onsite hearing on the merits	Taylor v Council of the Municipality of Woollahra [2022] NSWLEC 1658 of appeal – whether applicants denied procedural fairness in failing to address merits – whether erred in failing to consider amended clause 6.23(3)(d) of Woollahra Local Environment Plan 2014 – whether development consent is valid as a condition of approval is not final or certain	